

Industry Leaders Briefing 2018

Heidi Roberts

Project Executive

Coal Mine Workers' Health Scheme

Resources Safety and Health

Key messages

- 2018 Delivered
- Current State
- Look ahead for 2019

Monash review of CMWHS

- Respiratory component of scheme
- Systemic failure
- 18 recommendations across 5 areas
- Accepted by CWP Select Committee

Monash review of CMWHS

- Doctors: Standards and training
- Mandatory Register:
 - Accreditation, Registration, Audit
- Quality assurance and confidence

Monash review of CMWHS

Regulation amendments:

- i. Health surveillance as a purpose
- ii. Retired and former workers
- iii. Access to past records for surveillance
- iv. 5-yearly chest X-ray and spirometry
- v. Mandatory provider framework

Monash review of CMWHS

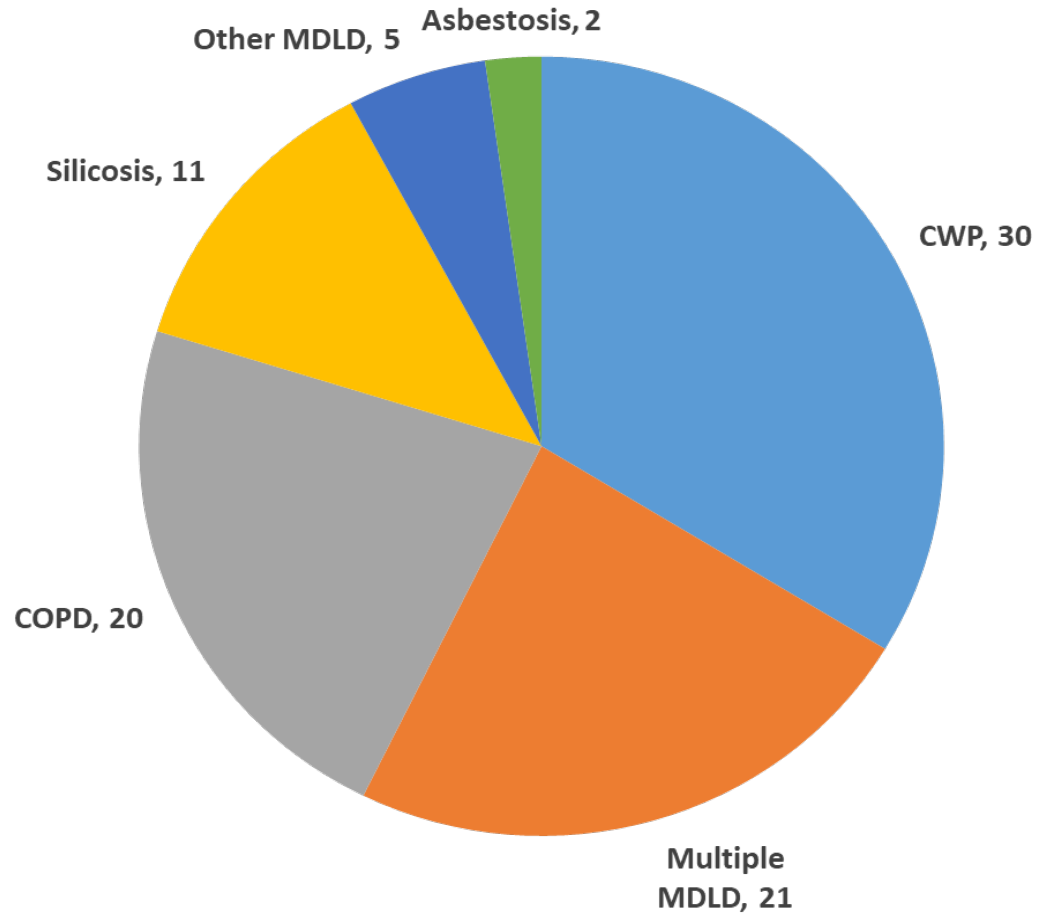

- Miners' Health Matters

<https://www.dnrme.qld.gov.au/miners-health-matters/what-is-cwp>

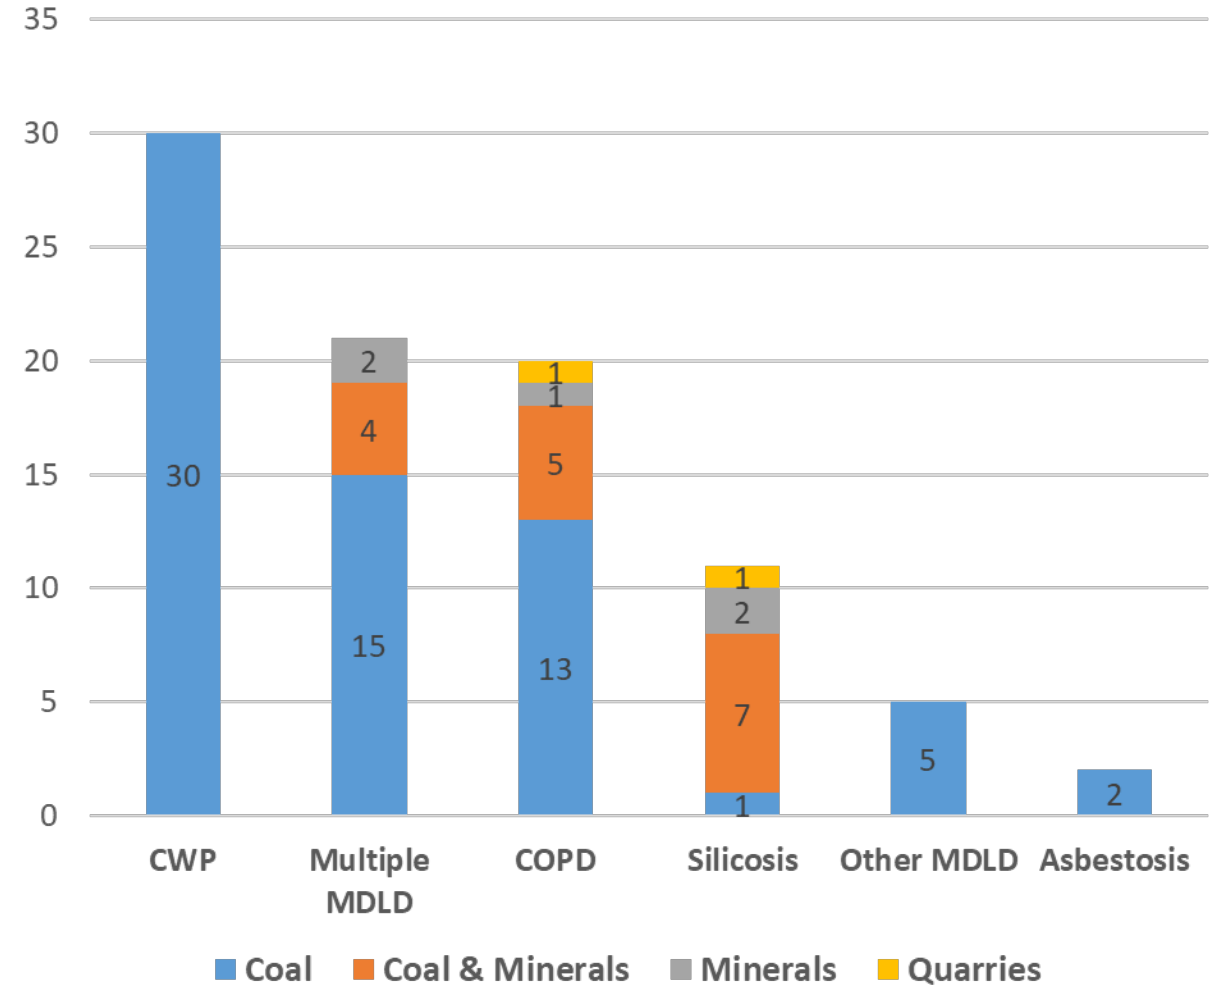

- HSU Reform

Current State

Cases reported as at 2 November 2018

MDLD by Mining Sector

Current State

Confirmed case profile

- 100% male
- 78% aged >50 years
- 60% underground workers
- 25% surface workers
- 25% interstate or international mining work history

Current State

- Respirable Crystalline Silica guideline
- Inspectorate focus
- Respirable dust database

- Embed and Sustain Monash
- Reform HSU
- Continue to transition learnings

Key messages

2018:

- Delivered Monash
- Protections for MMQ workers

2019:

- Embed and sustain Monash
- Transition learnings

Contact

Heidi Roberts

Executive Director, Occupational Health and Hygiene

Resources Safety and Health

0435 659 975

Heidi.Roberts@dnrme.qld.gov.au