

Industry Leaders Briefing 2019

Simtars

Nick Ahlstrand, Executive Director

Key Messages

- Statutory Competencies; Supporting the next generation
- Gas Management; Safegas V4
- Emergency Response; Level 1 exercise & on-call support
- Research; Simtars 5-year research strategy

Statutory Competencies

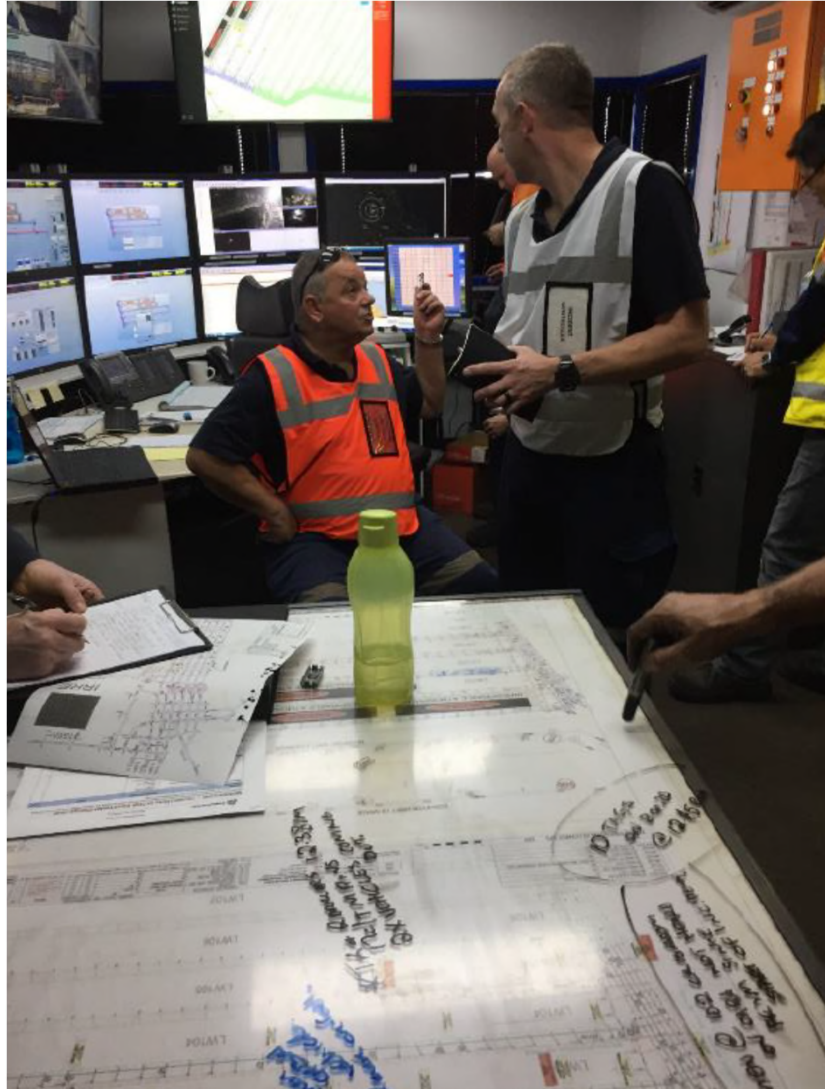

- ERZ Controller/Deputy Course
- First Class Mine Manager (Coal)
- Ventilation Officer Courses: U/G Coal & Metalliferous
- Mineral mines and quarries: Drill and Blast (on-line)
- BSBWHS409 Monitoring Respirable Dust

Safegas Version 4

- Access to SQL database ($1.2M)
- 9 priority sites Q2, 2019
- 10 non-priority sites Q2, 2020
- Enhanced user proposition
- Safegas V5: mobility & functionality (user interface)

Emergency Response

△ 7867

8743

13880
608

△ 59768

MODEL:428

GMB

△ 7239
572

△ 5320

Summary

- Simtars supports all regulatory arms within RSH to enhance industry safety and health outcomes.
- Simtars unique position within the industry enables us to leverage a global eco-system of partners.
- Simtars as relevant today as it was 30 years ago.
- Work collaboratively to support zero serious harm.

Thank you

Nick Ahlstrand

Executive Director, Simtars

Resources Safety and Health

3810 6300

Nick.ahlstrand@simtars.com.au