Privacy Disclaimer

Resources Safety and Health Queensland is collecting the information on this form on behalf of the Board of Examiners (the Board) to assess your application for a Site Senior Executive Notice Queensland (Coal). This information is authorised by the Coal Mining Safety and Health Act 1999. This information will only be accessed by authorised employees within Resources Safety and Health Queensland. Some information will be given to members of the Board for assessment purposes.

The Board is required by legislation to keep a register of certificates of competency granted by the Board, site senior executive notices issued by the Board and notices of registration given by the Board under the Mutual Recognition Act 1992. The Board may disclose information in the register, other than the contact details of an individual, to any person or agency. Further information on the privacy policy is available at <https://www.rshq.qld.gov.au/privacy>

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT

The SSE examination is a 2 hour "closed book" 2-part examination on the content of the Coal Mining Safety and Health Act 1999 and relevant Regulations. The pass mark is 70% in each section. The current legislation can be accessed at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

PROCESS

1. The applicant lodges an application and certified copy of proof of identity with the Secretary of the Board of Examiners and nominates an examination session.
2. Acknowledgement of the application and examination session booking will be emailed to the applicant. Booking requests must be received at least one week prior to the session date.
3. The examination details (date, location and time) will be confirmed one week prior to the nominated session. Applicants must produce original photographic identification to the supervisor.
4. Examination papers are marked anonymously by a member of the Board of Examiners.
5. A pass is a 70%* result in each section of the examination¹. An applicant who fails either part of the examination must resit the entire examination².
6. If the applicant fails the examination, the applicant is advised of the result and provided with details regarding resitting the examination.
7. If the applicant passes the examination, the Chair of the Board of Examiners issues a Notice. The Notice is forwarded to the applicant by registered post. Allow approximately 8 weeks from the examination for this process to be completed.

¹ The examination consists of Topic sections and covers both the Act and Regulations. To achieve a pass result the candidate must achieve at 70% in each section.

² Note: All reapplications are treated as a new application. Candidates who have failed 3 times or achieved less than 30% overall in the Board's examinations are asked to show cause why they should be permitted to sit again.
