

Form 1

Oaths Act 1867 (sections 13C, 13E, 14)

Version 2: approved for use from 30 April 2022

Statutory Declaration (Queensland) Print Version

This form allows you to make a statutory declaration under the Oaths Act 1867 in Queensland. A statutory declaration is a written statement that is declared to be true in the presence of an authorised witness. In this document, you are referred to as the signatory or declarant.

Making a false statement in a statutory declaration is a criminal offence. If your statutory declaration is based on information or belief, you should state the sources of your information or the grounds for your belief. You can also attach documents to your statutory declaration to support your statement.

At the back of this form, you will find an explanatory guide about who can witness your statutory declaration. In some cases, you may need a special witness to witness your statutory declaration.

You can print this document and sign it on paper before any authorised witness. You can electronically sign this document only if it is witnessed by a special witness or other authorised person. You can have this document witnessed over audio visual link (e.g. videoconference) only if it is witnessed by a special witness.

You may direct another person to sign your statutory declaration for you – this person is called a substitute signatory. The witness must observe you directing the substitute signatory to sign the document for you. At the back of this form, you will find an explanatory guide about who can act as your substitute signatory, and who can witness your statutory declaration if a substitute signatory signs for you.

WHO CAN WITNESS A STATUTORY DECLARATION IN QUEENSLAND

A statutory declaration under the Oaths Act 1867 in Queensland must be signed in the presence of an eligible witness. Who can witness a statutory declaration depends on how the document is signed (whether on paper or electronically), and whether the witness is present in person or by audio visual link.

Signing in the physical presence of witness

If the statutory declaration is to be signed on paper and in person, the witness can be:

- a justice of the peace (JP)
- a commissioner for declarations (Cdec)
- a notary public
- a lawyer
- a conveyancer, or another person authorised to administer an oath, under the law of the State, the Commonwealth or another State
- another person prescribed by regulation.

Signing electronically or witnessing over audio visual link

If the statutory declaration is to be:

- signed electronically (whether witnessed in person or by audio visual link); or
- witnessed over audio visual link (whether signed on paper or electronically), the witness must be a special witness or another person prescribed by regulation.

A special witness is:

- an Australian legal practitioner
- a government legal officer who is an Australian lawyer and who witnesses documents in the course of the government work engaged in by the officer
- an approved JP
- an approved Cdec
- if the document was prepared by a law practice – a JP or Cdec who is employed by the law practice and who witnesses documents in the course of that employment
- a notary public
- if the document was prepared by the Public Trustee of Queensland - a JP or Cdec who is an employee of the Public Trustee.

This is a guide only and is intended to provide general information. Please delete once complete.

WHO CAN SIGN A STATUTORY DECLARATION AS A SUBSTITUTE SIGNATORY

A substitute signatory is a person directed by the signatory to sign the statutory declaration on their behalf. The person who witnesses the statutory declaration must also observe the signatory giving the direction to the substitute signatory – this may occur in person or by audio visual link.

Who can't be a substitute signatory

If your declaration is to be witnessed over audio visual link or you are directing another person by audio visual link to sign the document for you, the following persons are excluded from signing as a substitute signatory:

- If the statutory declaration is to be used in a court or tribunal proceeding – a person who is another party to the proceeding, or a relation of a person who is another party to the proceeding.
- The person who witnesses the statutory declaration
- A person excluded under any other law from signing the document as a substitute signatory.

Who can be a substitute signatory

- Any adult with capacity can be a substitute signatory, except for those persons excluded above.
- If the signatory directs the substitute signatory over audio visual link to sign the document (i.e. they are not physically in each other's presence when the direction is given), then the substitute signatory must be:
 - any Australian legal practitioner
 - a government legal officer who is an Australian lawyer and who witnesses documents in the course of the government work engaged in by the officer
 - an employee of the Public Trustee of Queensland.

Note that whenever audio visual links are used to make, sign or witness a document (regardless of whether the witness or substitute signatory is present by audio visual link), the document must be witnessed by a special witness (refer above).
