Privacy statement

Resources Safety & Health Queensland collects personal information from you, including your name, contact details, biometric information and information about your eligibility for an occupational authority. We collect this information to process your application for an authority and for administering authorities generally. The Explosives Act 1999 allows or authorises us to collect this personal information. Your information may be reproduced on your authority, used in the administration of your authority and may be shared with other persons, including other Australian and New Zealand explosives regulators. This may include publishing authority details, other than your contact details, in an online register of authority holders. Your information may also be used to provide you with explosives safety updates, for statistical research, for auditing purposes, evaluation and reporting of our services. We will only use your information for these purposes. It will otherwise not be used or disclosed unless authorised or required by law. Your personal information will be handled in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

DECLARATION: I, as the individual applicant, authorised contact, director, partner or nominated responsible person, hereby make application and declare the information provided to be true and accurate to the best of my knowledge at this time. Should this application be successful, the applicant agrees to comply with the Explosives Act 1999, Explosives Regulation 2017 and any conditions imposed.

- (If an individual) I acknowledge that any security sensitive authorities issued to me may be suspended or cancelled if the security clearance held by me has expired, or is cancelled, suspended or surrendered.
- (If a listed corporation) I acknowledge that any security sensitive authorities issued to the publicly listed corporation may be suspended or cancelled if there is not a responsible person for the corporation or the security clearance held by the responsible person has expired, or is cancelled, suspended or surrendered.
- (If a corporation) I acknowledge that any security sensitive authorities issued to the corporation may be suspended or cancelled if the security clearances held by the directors of the corporation expire, or are cancelled, suspended or surrendered.
- (If a partnership) I acknowledge that any security sensitive authorities issued to the partnership may be suspended or cancelled if the security clearances held by the partners expire, or are cancelled, suspended or surrendered.

The applicant acknowledges that;

- it is an offence under Section 188 of the Explosives Regulation 2017 to provide false or misleading information in any application for an authority or renewal of an authority; and
- under section 15, 16 & 16A of the Explosives Act 1999, the Chief Inspector may make inquiries about a person's appropriateness to hold an authority; and
- under section 17 of the Explosives Act 1999, the Chief Inspector must refuse an application for a security sensitive authority unless the applicant holds a security clearance; and
- under section 23(1)(a) of the Explosives Act 1999, an authority issued based on incorrect or misleading information may be cancelled.
